

I am outraged that a company such as Sinclair would use their television stations to pump propaganda into our public airwaves in an attempt to turn our presidential election. I feel that this violation needs to be punished severally. Their contempt for fairness should cost them their use of our public airwaves.

Thank you,
William R Smith